

The People's Column

The Woman's Club of Bryan is to be commended for deciding to again sponsor a "Yard Beautiful Contest." A similar contest was held last year and the success was gratifying. Beautiful yards add much to the attractiveness of a city, and there is much improvement in this section that take even more interest in them. A pretty yard usually is a good indication of the character of the persons who live in a home—it shows that they have much self-respect, enterprise and pride. Bryan is known as a "Friendly City," and a "City of Schools," and should be known as a "City Beautiful." Encourage the Woman's Club in this splendid undertaking for Bryan.

Mr. Palmer feels with the support of his many friends throughout the district he has a good chance.

Capt. R. W. Connor, a Madisonville product but now of Houston, is in Bryan to attend the trial of W. T. Hill charged with murder. Capt. Connor was manager of the city farm when the death of Wiley Zeigler occurred. Capt. Connor is no stranger in Bryan, as a follower of Isaac Walton he has many friends here who have in former days sought the finnytribe together. Among them are Ed Wickes, J. E. Covey, W. F. Gibbs, W. H. Cole, Carl Cole and perhaps others.

Persons who live in smaller cities enjoy life more than those of the large cities, was the opinion expressed today by Horace Soule, criminal district attorney of Houston, who is here to assist in the prosecution of the Hill case. Mr. Soule attended the Methodist Men's Brotherhood last night and said he enjoyed himself thoroughly.

S. E. Eberstadt left today for Lampasas, where tomorrow he will deliver three addresses relative to chamber of commerce work. He was invited by C. C. Abney, chairman of the program committee of the Lampasas Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parker write that they are having a wonderful time in New York City, where they are visiting. They are attending all the events of interest.

M. L. Cashion, Secretary Of The College Y. M. C. A., Speaks To Presbyterian Men Of The Church

The Presbyterian Men-of-the-Church wound up the work of their official year last night with a meeting characterized by both life and earnestness, and which included entertainment, physical food, an address, general business, election of officers, and spiritual food. And each of these was good and worth-while in its place.

The entertainment included piano solos and accompaniments for the men's songs played by Mrs. Roy Danforth, who has always given so willingly of her time, and three charming vocal duets by Misses Catherine Hutton and Mildred Salley. The "eats" consisted largely of those standbys of the would-be sterner sex—chili and apple pie—and hit the hungry spot with the first swing of the bat.

The address was by Secretary M. L. Cashion of the College Y. M. C. A., and dealt largely with the problems faced by the churches and the young men's and young women's Christian associations in connection with the large increases in enrollment in the denominational and state supported colleges and universities of our country. Mr. Cashion made a very practical and worth-while address and

BOTH STATE AND DEFENSE READY FOR TRIAL AT 11:30 SESSION

Crowded Court Room Grooms Trial Opening; Number of Witnesses and Others of Houston Here for Case and Many More Are Expected Thursday Morning

After first stating that they would ask for a continuance, attorneys for W. T. Hill, charged with the fatal whipping of Wiley Zeigler, Houston city farm convict, June 4, 1926, announced they were ready for trial at 11:30 this morning, and the indictment of the Harris county grand jury was read by County Attorney W. E. Neeley, to which the defendant plead "not guilty." The venire of 100 men was summoned, and the selection of a jury is under way. There are numerous witnesses and spectators here from Houston, and many more are expected Thursday morning. The court room is crowded, and many local citizens are listening to the proceedings. This case, brought here on a change of venue from Houston, is the first big case to be tried in district court here this year. Hon. W. C. Davis, district judge, is presiding.

This case is the result of a whipping said to have been administered by Hill, a guard, June 4, 1926. Zeigler later died from wounds sustained. This affair figured prominently in several political races in Harris county last year. County Attorney Neeley will be assisted in the prosecution by Horace Soule, criminal district attorney of Harris county, and W. J. Barnes, formerly of Eastland, his assistant. M. E. Gates of Huntsville and Law Henderson of Bryan are the attorneys for the defense.

Dr. Perella Is Scoring Success

"The success which has recently come to Dr. Anthony Paul Perella of Dallas, as a writer, is noted with interest and pride in Bryan, because of the fact that Dr. Perella is a brother of Mrs. Nick Lobbello of this city, and has visited here and is well known to a large circle of friends.

Dr. Perella, according to an account of his recent success published in the Dallas and Waco papers, which also carried a picture of this gifted young writer, won his recognition with a "whimsical story about a negro, a dog and a jack rabbit," the story appearing under the title "The Phantom Jack" appearing in the Saturday Evening Post of March 12, 1927.

With a natural ability for literature, story telling and writing, inherited from his father, who was noted in his home town of Waco, as a gifted speaker, this young author's childhood heard from his father's lips marvelous stories of Garibaldi's army, and the rebirth of Italy, his native land, which fired his soul, and were as seed sown in good ground. Dr. Perella is a native prolific writer, and still is hard at work, with a bright future before him.

St. Patrick's Day Observed By The Methodist Women who Put on Program Of Men's Brotherhood Meet Tuesday

With the idea of St. Patrick's Day carried out in the most minute detail, and with one of the most appetizing menus of the season, the ladies of the Methodist church entertained the members of the Men's Brotherhood Tuesday night in royal fashion. The room was artistically decorated, in white flags and green ribbon and St. Patrick's emblems were pinned on the men as they entered and also were given as plate favors.

Speaking in behalf of the women, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree spoke on "Success." She stated that everyone had a definite mission in life, and we would achieve success if we would do this work. She stated that "service" is the greatest word in the English language and mentioned the members of her "Success Family," which she said had been a great inspiration to her.

With instructions to "roast" the men, Ty Cobb read interviews that had been given by Rev. H. H. McCain, Hon. Oak McKenzie, E. W. Crenshaw, Hon. W. E. Neeley, A. M. Waldrop, Wilson Bradley, and Tom Adams.

Miss Maurine Neeley gave two excellent readings that were enthusiastically received and Mrs.

Bryan Debaters Split Contests

The Bryan High debating teams competed against Franklin Tuesday night. The Bryan boys' team composed of Freeman Key, and Arthur Morehead, came home victorious. The subject for debate was, "Resolved, That We Should Have a Secretary of Education with a Place in the President's Cabinet." The Bryan boys upheld the question with Franklin denying it.

Although defeated, the girls' team composed of Julia Schovajsa, and Annette Lobello put up some mighty good arguments. Franklin had the affirmative and Bryan the negative in this debate.

Both Bryan teams compete with Hearne tomorrow night. At which time the Bryan boys will take the negative, and the Bryan girls will debate the affirmative. Too much credit cannot be given to Miss Holt, the capable coach, who has toiled diligently to give Bryan a team that will survive the district meet to be held at Brenham the early part of next month.

D. D. Institute May Do Printing

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, March 16.—A suggestion that students in the state deaf and dumb institute be given the task of printing the legislative journals is before the state board of control, Dr. H. H. Harrington, chairman said today.

Printing is already taught at the school and only a relatively small amount additional equipment would be needed, Harrington said. The legislature may be asked in its special session to make the appropriation necessary. Thousands of dollars would be saved the state yearly if the plan were adopted, Harrington said.

Bryan Woman Has Possession Of Sam Houston's Razor

A razor bearing the inscription, "General Houston's Razor," engraved on the long steel blade in clear, simple but unmistakable letters, is one of the treasured possessions of Mrs. A. L. Long. The razor came into Mrs. Long's possession from her mother who found it some years ago buried beneath a cedar after while clearing away the debris from a deserted log house which stood some three miles east of Franklin, Robertson county. It is said the house was at one time occupied by General Sam Houston years ago when he made the trip along the old San Antonio Trail from Houston to San Antonio and the razor is supposed to have been lost during that time.

R. A. Thompson, state highway engineer, today said there are no other appointments in prospect, adding that the department "will try to go forward" with the force it now has.

EVANGELIST CHARLES TAYLOR PREACHES GREAT SERMON ON "THY DAY" AT TABERNACLE

The largest crowd of the week heard "Charlie Taylor," the California evangelist at the First Baptist tabernacle in this city Tuesday night. If the crowds continue to increase, as they have every night during the meeting, the committee on arrangements declares it will be necessary to take out the front walls of the tabernacle and enlarge the auditorium as far as the side walk. Rev. R. E. Day, pastor of the church and his committees are making everything as comfortable and convenient as possible for the crowds who are attending and the slogan of the meeting "Bring One With You," is still in force.

The preliminaries of each evening service as well as the sermons, are attracting people, and Tuesday evening the tabernacle was almost filled at 7:00 p. m. when "Dad" Taylor leads an inspirational service for thirty minutes before the song service begins. One of the sweetest numbers on the evening programs is the duet sung by "Dad" and "Charlie," father and son, 60 and 27 years, both earnest and sincere in the gospel message in song, and both singers of far more than usual ability.

The two words selected by the young preacher for the Tuesday evening text from the 19th chapter of Luke, 42nd verse, were these: "Thy Day." He pointed out the importance of every man and woman, boy and girl making the most of their own "day of opportunity." "It is now thy day, sinners," said the preacher. "It is thy day, blackslider; it is thy day, Christian. Men are not Christians today in 1927 because they will not think. They think of business, of pleasure, of vacations, of ease, of comfort, of money making, but they refuse to think of eternity." The sermon was powerful and impressive, and every heart felt the cutting words "It is thy day; what will you do with it?"

"Standing Back of the Church" will be the subject of the sermon for tonight, and a special invitation was given from the rostrum to attend this service.

The meeting is great from every point of view, and all Bryan and Brazos county is feeling the influence of it, even thus early. The members of all churches of the city and country, regardless of denomination were again urged to come and take part in the campaign being waged for the salvation of the lost. That this invitation is being accepted in a great way, is evidenced each evening by the large representation from all churches, present.

"Come and bring one with you" tonight at 7:00 sharp to the First Baptist tabernacle.

THE MARKETING PROBLEM

There is more active interest in the poultry business in Brazos county at this time than ever in its history. There are more modern equipped hatcheries and everything else that goes to make up a first class poultry establishment. Most of the poultrymen are making money, but they are never going to make the success they should and are entitled to make until they form a co-operative marketing club, where eggs are graded and sold on guarantee. These clubs would create and invite competitive buying and competition is the life of trade. It would likewise afford a daily cash market for poultry and eggs. In the Sherman Democrat we read: "Grayson county people are giving more or less serious attention to poultry culture. Denison business men are co-operating with the farmers of that community in the establishment of a poultry colony near Denison. A co-operative marketing organization, intended to cover all of North Texas, is under way. Sherman poultry fanciers are already organized."

That is what must be done in Brazos county if we are to succeed. Get the co-operation of the business men in solving the marketing problem.

KEEP TEXAS MONEY IN TEXAS

But few people in Texas know of the materials that can be made by the students at A. and M. College in the textile department. This department is under the direction of J. B. Bagley with F. E. Lichte in charge. We know where we speak, because we ourselves did not know what wonderful things they were doing until we examined a souvenir piece of cloth woven in silk and cotton, bearing a picture of the main building woven in it. Trained men in this business should be an incentive to develop the cotton mill industry of Texas. Texas grows cotton, more than any other state; then why should we ship it away to be made into cloth? Why not save the shipping charges to and from the mill, and keep that money in Texas? Why? That is a question we have long wanted answered. Today we do not appreciate our possibilities so much as does the outside world, which looks upon Texas as a land of promise. But tomorrow we will realize this promise.

MERIT RECOGNIZED

The General Motors Corporation has seen the error of its way according to Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president, and has taken a department in their advertising policy and from now on will use a series of advertisements in the country weeklies for the first time. "The plan of this campaign originated in my own office. I believe in the country weekly. I believe that no printed matter in the United States is more thoroughly read, or has more influence than the pages of these home town papers," said Mr. Sloan.

No corporation gets so big that it does not need the goodwill of the public. And there is no better way to create that than to place advertising in the small town papers, which are read more closely than any other printed matter, and carry the message to their immediate community with more force. If the project is worthy and merits its existence it will profit by being generally made well known and if it is not worthy it will die that much quicker.

Bryan will be glad to welcome a new $250,000 hotel. A fine hotel is one of the best assets a city can have, and is looked upon as a civic enterprise. There probably is more building activity in Bryan at this time than in any other city in Texas. A hotel, three churches, and a number of new homes will be erected this year. Bryan is not only the "Friendly City" but also the "Busy City."

The Brazos County Poultry Association is to be commended for conducting a tour of the poultry farms of the county having experts tell of poultry culture. The more of these trips the better. The old fashioned idea that chickens can be grown without technical knowledge is being abandoned. Poultry raising is a science, and it is a science that pays big dividends.

A person may get along pretty well financially, but he will never amount to much without courage. One of the best examples of courage is furnished by Jim Reed of Missouri, one of the most talked of men in America, and a potential Democratic nominee for president. When Jim could not find an organization that would sponsor his addresses a few years ago, he would rent a hall and introduce himself. And how the crowds flocked to hear him. This spirit has enabled him to stage one of the most notable comebacks in America's political history.

Governor Moody is to be commended for signing the libel law, recently passed by the Legislature. The adoption of this bill is an index of the change of thought that most of us are going through. Four years or two years ago no human being could have persuaded the Legislature to pass this bill while this year there were practically no opposition to it. Texas is beginning to be willing to permit its citizens to have a few thoughts and to express them.

Bryan Little Theatre is to be commended for entering the State tournament. Tryouts to select the cast that will go to Dallas will be held this week. Every member of the organization should try for a place. Bryan is to be commended for its pluck in trying to compete with the largest cities in the State. Maybe the results will be similar to the "Lion and the Mouse" affair.

The sentencing of several Texas peace officers to term imprisonment on charge of peonage should have a good effect in this State. In the past many of our officers have been proud to usurp their authority upon the slightest provocation, and to discharge duties not within their jurisdiction or rights. Texas is making law violators of all kinds toe the mark.

A man more than 90 years old who is said to have traded half of the land upon which Denver is situated for a mule, is dead. This man wanted a mule to enable him to get out of town. He should go down in history as one of the world's poorest traders. A man who would make a trade like that is mule enough.

Our Texas legislators are not very appreciative. Dallas and Fort Worth gave them a party recently, and now the solons refuse to give them what they want in regard to tax remissions. Friendship and hospitality do not come before duty with the 1927 Legislature.

Howell was appointed to act as chairman of arrangements and decoration.

The subject of study for the afternoon was "Pictures from American History." This program based on outstanding gems in American literature and oratory proved to be one of the course so far. Mrs. Sam Cavitt was leader for the day.

All Delphians are urged to be present at next Friday's meeting and to bring their friends as guests for the day. Members of other literary clubs in Bryan and at College as well as the general public are cordially invited to attend this meeting. The program will be led by Mrs. J. S. Mogford, and the subject will be "The Position of Woman at the End of the Nineteenth Century."

Ex-Bryan Woman Dies On March 3

Old time friends in Brazos county will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Florence Bullock, on March 3 at the home of her daughter in Shreveport, La. In her usual health as far as was known, Mrs. Bullock went out into the yard soon after breakfast to work among the flowers. As she stooped over to remove some dead leaves from a plant, she fell, and when loved ones reached her side, she was dead.

Mrs. Florence Bullock was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Bullock, pioneer residents of Brazos county. She was about 53 years of age, and was born and reared in the Steep Hollow community. A noble Christian from her early girlhood she lived daily the religion she cherished, and with God as her guide, "went about doing good in His name." The sick, the poor, the afflicted and sorrowful, knew her ministrations, and her helpfulness and care. Death was sudden, without pain, without suffering. It is sweet to her many friends to know that she was spared a long and painful waiting. She has come into her reward, and her influence for good, lives on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Mrs. Florence Bullock is survived by two daughters and four sons. The funeral was held at her late home, and interment made in the cemetery at Shreveport, La.

H. D. WILSON DIES AT HOME HERE TODAY

LIFE EBBS AWAY SLOWLY FOLLOWING ATTACK OF APOPLEXY

Ill For Four Days

WAS BORN IN BRYAN, TEXAS, 53 YEARS AGO; LEAVES WIFE AND SON

(From Saturday's Daily)
Hillsman D. Wilson, who was stricken with apoplexy, Wednesday morning, passed away at his home in this city, Saturday, March 12, 1927, at 11:00 o'clock a. m. Since the sudden attack of Wednesday, he only had moments of consciousness, and life ebbed slowly until the hour mentioned above when death came and his tired spirit flitted away. In the strength of manhood, with life before him and his family surrounded by a host of good friends who had known him since boyhood, H. D. Wilson was called suddenly away, proving again the truth "In the midst of life we are in death."

Hillsman D. Wilson was born in Bryan, Texas, September 8, 1874, and was 53 years of age. He was the youngest son of the late Col. and Mrs. T. D. Wilson of this city. Munroe Bond, about 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bond, is suffering from a broken right leg since Friday morning when he was knocked down by an auto as he was crossing the street on College Boulevard near D. D. White's home.

Young Bond was helping a friend to deliver milk on the Carl Wipprecht truck and as he chased across the street after bottles he was hit. The other car was driven by a man named C. B. Matthews. It is stated by those who have investigated the accident that no blame could be attached to Mr. Matthews as he, at the risk of his own life turned his car into the ditch trying to avoid the boy who ran across the street without noticing the approaching car. Young Bond was taken to the Bryan Hospital, where his leg was set and today he is resting splendidly and hopes to be removed to his home soon.

Bryan May Have $250,000 Hotel By October 1st, 1927

PETITION TELLING OF NEW HOTEL PLANS IS PRESENTED TO THE CITY COMMISSION HERE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Regular monthly meeting of the City Commission of the City of Bryan was held last night at the city hall.

A petition signed by several property owners was presented to the Commission by A. S. Ware for the re-establishing of the north property line of 27th Street along block 256. The petition requested that the line be changed a distance of 5 feet. The request was made due to the necessity of this additional space for erecting a modern fire-proof one hundred room hotel on the corner of block 256 same being the property now occupied by the W. E. Saunders building. The erecting of the hotel, same to cost about $250,000, would be made a condition to the re-establishing of the street line in that if the hotel was not erected the ordinance petitioned for would be void. Mr. Ware, representing Mr. R. W. Howell who is proposing to erect the hotel, stated that arrangements were practically completed for the leasing of the hotel for a period of years and that other details were being rapidly completed and that Mr. Howell expects to have the hotel ready for occupancy by October 1, 1927.

The petition was referred to the Street Commissioner, City Manager and City Attorney for investigation and a report at an early date to the commission.

A vacancy was reported on the Sue Haswell Park Board. Action of appointing another member was deferred until a later date.

A report was made by street commissioner and the city manager regarding need of a truck for the street department. Authority was given to close a deal for a new truck. Adjourned to meet again next week. Those present were: Mayor Tyler Haswell, Wilson Bradley, H. A. Burger, E. J. Jenkins, and L. L. McInnis, city commissioners; also City Attorney F. L. Henderson, City Secretary Guy P. Bittle, City Manager J. Bryan Miller, and A. S. Ware.

MICHIGAN MAYOR SENDS GREETINGS TO BRYAN WITH LOVELY FLOWERS

On the occasion of the opening of the 8th National Flower Show in Detroit, Michigan, the mayor of the city John W. Smith, sends greetings to the people of Bryan by "saying it with flowers," by telegram. This flower token was made possible through a world-wide organization of 3,500 bonded members of the Florists' Telegraph Association of which the Bryan Nursery and Floral company is a member. The Eagle was the recipient of the Michigan mayor's gift this year through the local member, the Bryan Nursery and Floral company. These flowers were grown in Bryan and are as beautiful and luxurious as could be grown anywhere in the world. Stems, petals and blossoms as fine as can be imagined. Sweet peas, stock, tulips, and carnations, all in brilliant red, bring a flaming and cheerful greeting. If the mayor's greetings to the people of Bryan are as acceptable as the flowers were to The Eagle, they were appreciated some.

Improvements Being Planned For City Park

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Park Board was held in the City Hall at 10:00 a. m. Thursday, Mrs. W. S. Howell presiding. The outstanding points under consideration were: Grading of drives, installation of lights and water, barbecue pits, band stand, benches, the construction of a wading pool, locating the Boy Scouts home in the park and the raising of funds for a caretaker of the park for this year.

County Judge, H. O. Ferguson, reported that he hoped to have the grading of the drives done within a short time. It was reported by the city officials that ornamental lighting units and water would be installed at an early date. The committee was asked to see about donation of tables and benches to be placed at various points in the park. John M. Lawrence Jr. was present and discussed the matter of the Elks doing some construction work at the park. This is to be taken before the Elks lodge at their next regular meeting. Reverend Wm. W. Daup discussed at length plans whereby the future home of the Boy Scouts might be established at the Sue Haswell Memorial Park. This matter will be further handled by the Boy Scouts committee, a report to be made at an early date.

The question of a caretaker of the park was discussed at length. Individuals and organizations are interested in seeing that a man be kept throughout the year, and the Knights of Columbus, Woodmen of the World, and the Macabees have already expressed their willingness to support a caretaker. Other individuals and organizations will be asked to do likewise by the Committee and the park board trusts a willing response will be had and that the work of cleaning the park may be begun at once.

Present were Mrs. W. S. Howell, Mrs. W. D. Lawrence, Mat Vitopill, Judge J. T. Maloney, Wm. W. Daup, J. E. Warren, John M. Lawrence Jr., and J. Bryan Miller. Meeting adjourned to meet again next Thursday morning.

TAYLOR EVANGELISTIC PARTY MAKES FINE IMPRESSION HERE

"Dad" Taylor, Charles Forbes Taylor, and Laurie Taylor, Compose Evangelistic Party; Large Audiences Attend Both of the Opening Services on Sunday

The Charles Forbes Taylor evangelistic party of Pasadena, California, began a series of revival meetings at the First Baptist Tabernacle in Bryan, Sunday March 13, with two services. At the 11 o'clock hour Sunday morning, Rev. R. E. Day, pastor of the church, gave welcome to the visiting workers, and then introduced them to the great audience which filled the tabernacle to its capacity. The party is composed of "Dad" Taylor, the old father, Charles Forbes Taylor Jr., the preacher son, and Laurie Taylor, another son, who is the musician and director of song service. Each one in his place, won the hearts of all who heard them with the first service, and it was the unanimous opinion expressed, that Bryan and Brazos county is to enjoy a great feast of spiritual blessing, on account of the sincere and earnest service of these men of God, during the three weeks meeting which has just begun.

The following important announcements regarding the services during the meeting were officially made from the rostrum at the Sunday morning service. There will be no day services held; only one service each day. At 7:00 p. m. sharp, every evening, "Dad" Taylor will conduct a thirty-minute service, to which all who will enter in an earnest way into the spiritual work of the meeting, and all who will assist in the deepening of the spiritual atmosphere of the services are invited. Promptly at 7:30 p. m. the services will begin with a song service of fifteen minutes before the sermon.

Good Musician
Laurie Taylor is a musician of more than usual ability and music lovers will enjoy hearing him. His grand piano, which he takes with him for these meetings has arrived in Bryan and was placed on the rostrum at the tabernacle today, and will be used in the service Monday night. The young preacher "Charlie Taylor" who stirs the hearts of the people with his earnest messages is also a singer of sweetest voice, and a whistler par excellence. Gifted and cultured, "Charlie Taylor" has consecrated his talents to the service of God, and uses them all for His glory and the ongoing of His kingdom work.

Bryan, College Station, Hearne, Wellborn, Kurten, Harvey, Steep Hollow Persons Attend Revival

Bryan, College, Hearne, Wellborn, Kurten, Harvey, Steep Hollow, and other adjoining communities were represented in the great audience that filled the First Baptist tabernacle Monday night to hear "Charlie Taylor", "Dad" Taylor and Laurie, in the service at 7 o'clock. This was not a "blue Monday," but a great and inspiring one for the first week-night of the revival meeting which started Sunday and will continue for three weeks.

Following the inspirational service held from 7:00 to 7:30 by "Dad" Taylor; the song service began promptly and with the new books, the new leaders and the beloved old songs of Zion sung with the spirit and understanding, by all, in one great chorus, the uplifting spirit of the occasion was felt from the beginning of the service.

Charlie Preaches
As is his custom, "Charlie Taylor" made some important announcements for the week, before he began to preach. He called attention to a request made at the first service, and emphasized it again that everybody bring their Bible with them every service, declaring that he wanted the people to follow his readings from the Book.

The slogan of the meeting as given out from the beginning is "Bring One With You," and it is already bearing fruit. Every church in the city, regardless of denomination is entering wholeheartedly into every service, and even at the very first of this series of meetings there is a visible cooperation and brotherly love and a united effort to bring the lost to Christ during these "seasons of blessing."

The preacher announced as his subject for Tuesday night "two words of three letters each," and gave the chapter and verses where the text may be found, asking all to hunt it up and select the words. The reference was given was Luke 19th chapter, the 35th verse to the end of the chapter.

Sermon Wednesday
Wednesday night the subject of the sermon will be "Standing Back of the Church". All folk who are not in the habit of con-

THE OLD FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Old church, around whose cracked and crumbling walls, A thousand tender sacred memories cling, O'er you today, the sounds of "Taps" must fall, Today, our requiem songs we sing.

And as we gather here with tear dimmed eyes, For the last service, each in her accustomed pew, The scenes of all the happy years gone by, Pass before us now in brief review.

Some house-wife with her husband by her side, Deep in reminiscences the while, Recalls just now, that down that central aisle, She passed one night, a happy, blushing bride.

And some, down that same aisle one day did pass, A sinner, who for pardoning grace did yearn, And met the Savior, as He stood, His hands Outstretched to greet the prodigal's return.

Through yonder stained glass window, off the sun With mocking splendor mocked our loved ones' bier, And sent of all his truant rays, just one Inside, to kiss away the mourners' tears.

Old bricks, that throughout all the years have stood Mute witness of our labor and our strife, Revered and loved, we'd leave you if we could, Calm and untouched by the wreckers' knife.

But, 'tween as we, when purged of our mistakes, Are used in plans our Architect hath drawn So you, your marts and esseratches all erased, Will make for us, a larger, better home.

And as the chambered nautilus casts his shell, And grows another, larger, so may we Grow on, 'till called at last, we dwell, With the Great Builder, through Eternity.

A MEMBER, M. T. H.

Pioneer Citizen Passes Away

Friends of the deceased were both grieved and shocked to learn of the death Saturday night of B. F. Harrington of Millican. Although he had been in poor health for some time, it was not expected that his passing was so near.

Benjamin Franklin Harrington was born in Kasper county near Lauderdale, Miss., Nov. 20, 1845. Enlisting in the prime of his young manhood in the Confederate Army, he served with distinction in Wheeler's Cavalry Brigade. Following the close of the Civil War he came to the promising state of Texas and settled at Millican in January 1870. With the exception of two years he had been a resident of Brazos county continuously since that time, covering a period of fifty-two years.

Being naturally of a quiet disposition his activities were confined largely to his home and his community, where his influence for the right and good was strongly felt. Nine children came to bless his home of him and his good wife, seven of whom survive the father. The deceased children are: Turner, a son who died in infancy, and Nelse, a son whose life was given in the service of his country during the World War.

Surviving Mr. Harrington are: his widow, Mrs. B. F. Harrington; two sons, B. F. Harrington Jr. and J. H. Harrington of Millican, and five daughters, Mrs. C. G. Hemphill of Alkenfarm, Mrs. W. G. Neely of Hockley, Mrs. P. W. McSwain of Bryan, Mrs. Wallace G. Dunlap of Millican and Mrs. Alvin Gregg of Bryan. In addition to his immediate family four grandchildren and one great grandchild and a great host of friends remain to mourn his death.

Funeral services were held from the family residence Sunday afternoon at 3:30 with interment at the Millican cemetery. Deceased was of the Methodist faith and services were conducted by the pastor of the First Methodist church of Navasota. An impressive part of the service was that Mr. Harrington's sons-in-law served as acting pall bearers.

In the passing of this good old man, the family and other relatives have suffered a loss which will also be felt by the entire community. Sincere sympathy is extended the bereaved ones.

BOBBITT NAMES BRAZOS SOLON

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, March 15.—Speaker Bobbitt Monday appointed Representatives Wallace, Teer, Rawlins, Barron and Storey as the House members of the free conference committee to adjust differences between the House and Senate on the motor vehicle registration bill. The Senate conferees are Wirtz, Fairchild, Stuart, Wood and Miller.

Harvey

HARVEY, March 16.—Everybody is enjoying this fine spring weather, cold and crisp in the morning then warming up like a day in May. The farmers are rushing their plowing now and quite a number are planting corn. The long seige of rains put them all behind.

Little Ola Cobb happened to quite a painful accident last week at school when she tripped and fell among some barbed wire which cut several gashes on her throat and tore one of her fingers badly. The worst gash on her throat was quite near the jugular vein. Her teacher Mrs. Tom Holland brought her to Dr. Davidson to have the wounds properly disinfected.

Rev. R. L. Brown's place at the First Baptist church was filled last Sunday afternoon by Prof. Russell of College Station who made a good talk on "Brotherly Love," which was much enjoyed by the congregation. Rev. Brown was busy with the campaign for raising money to rid the Missionary Baptists of debt. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dansby attended services here Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Davidson came near having a serious accident Monday afternoon while on her way to Bryan. An axle broke which caused the left hind wheel to fly off. Fortunately it happened in a sand bed where the road was level and good. Just a mile back at Hudson's Branch the road is very rough, hard and sliding, one track being at least two feet lower than the other, a constant dread to her every time she passes it. If the wheel had run off there the car would surely have turned over and serious results followed. Everybody who passed proved a friend, ready to help if they could, but Mit Weeden who witnessed the accident had showed her the trouble and sent word by Claude Moore to Chambers & Wilson to come to the rescue. So Mrs. Davidson felt very grateful that she had not been injured or killed and felt that this is a good old world to live in. She ever finds friends in both the white and black man when she has car trouble on her way.

Throwing Eggs Is All the Rage Now

CAMERON, March 16.—Four high school students were under bond today in municipal court on a charge of throwing eggs at teachers. The teachers, riding along a principal business street Sunday, were pelted with eggs said to have been thrown from another car occupied by the students.

On hearing before Mayor Davis the boys were released on bond to appear at the court next day to answer the charges.

One of the students explained that "throwing eggs is all the rage now."

BRAZOS COUNTY

Boys' and Girls' Club Department

Club Notes and Farm News By County Agent C. L. Beason

More Clubs Formed

Two more boys' and girls' clubs were organized last week, one at the Rye consolidated school and the other at Tabor. This is the first regularly organized club for Rye, but Tabor is a veteran in the work. Tabor boys and girls declare they are coming back strong this year. They have selected the second Friday night in each month for joint meeting of the club. Tabor boys and girls bring out that old "war song" and get the blood tingling in your veins again. Let's go! The Rye club will meet every third Saturday night. There will be a heap of fun.

Clubs to Meet

Word comes from Steele's Store Club that they are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to their meeting with the Kurten Club. They are preparing to give the Kurten bunch about a 30-minute program, but it will be a pep-py one from start to finish. All right Wallace Sabo and W. H. Buchanan, begin to line up your crews, for the first Friday in April at Steele's Store.

Offers Prize

W. B. Cook, agricultural agent for the Missouri Pacific Lines, announces that a scholarship will be given to the Brazos County club member who writes the best essay on "Agricultural Possibilities for Brazos County," the essay to contain not over 1000 words. All expenses will be paid the winner. If interested, ask your county agent, or home demonstration agent for a copy of the rules and regulations governing the contest. Freddie Conrad won the trip last year.

Wellborn Meets

Owing to conflict of meeting dates, the Wellborn boys' and girls' club did not have a very large attendance last Saturday night, but it was a very good little meeting. Mrs. D. C. McIntosh, with Miss Lillian Beaumont, pianist, led the group in community singing which all enjoyed. The pie eating contest between two boys and two girls was exciting, one of the boys winning by good margin. Announcement of club prizes was made, especial attention being called to dairy contest beginning April 1.

Price May Advance

Calcium arsenate is now quoted on the markets at 7 1-2 cents a pound, but what will the farmer have to pay for it next summer when poisoning time is on? Last year when there was a great outbreak of army worms the price of poison skyrocketed to almost prohibitive prices. This is a problem in which the business interests as a whole should help solve.

Fertilizer Tests

County Agent Beason will again conduct a fertilizer test among some four or five farmers this year, using nitrate of soda and acid phosphate in different proportions. Farmers co-operating in making the test last year were W. E. Moore of Steep Hollow, Wiley Conaway of Independence, Freddie Conrad of Pickett and W. M. Holligan of Bryan, each plat comprising 1-5 of an acre and fertilized as follows: Plat No. 1 no fertilizer; No. 2 40 pounds of acid phosphate and 20 pounds of nitrate of soda; No. 3 40 pounds of acid and 30 pounds of nitrate of soda; No. 4 40 pounds of acid and 40 pounds of nitrate of soda; plat No. 5 varied with different farmers. The yields were as follows: Holligan, plat 1, 205; plat 2, 225; plat 3, 224; plat 4, 203; plat 5, (40 pounds acid and 40 pounds of cotton seed meal), 206, pounds seed cotton. Moore, plat 1, 84; plat 2, 190; plat 3, 191; plat 4, 203; plat 5, no record. Conaway, plat 1, 65; plat 2, 97; plat 3, 145; plat 4, 135; plat 5, (40 pounds of acid phosphate and 20 pounds cotton seed meal), 163 pounds of seed cotton. Conrad, plat 1, 194; plat 2, 181; plat 3, 184; plat 4, 205; plat 5 (40 pounds acid phosphate, 40 pounds cotton seed meal and 6 pounds muriate potash), 185 pounds seed cotton. A careful study of these yields shows that there was considerable variance, some plats showing poor results from fertilizer, while others seemed to pay. The tests planned this year will seek further to find what fertilizer is best and in what quantities. If interested see your county agent.

Cutworm Is Doing Heavy Damage To Garden And Field Crops Is Information Received By A. & M.

COLLEGE STATION, March 17.—Heavy damage to garden and field crops by the cutworm is reported in advices reaching the Extension Service A. and M. College of Texas, from various section of Texas, Charles H. Alvord, director of the Extension Service has announced.

Urging the use of the standard poison bran mash in combating the ravager, Director Alvord said: "In many sections where damage has appeared county agents and gardeners have made prompt use of the standard poison bran mash. This has resulted in absolute control of the insect. The effectiveness of this remedy has been so thoroughly proved this year that there is no doubt of its general effectiveness."

Commenting on the reports of cutworm damage, Director Alvord said: "For several weeks past, reports have been reaching College Station of heavy damage being done to garden crops by cutworms. The same damage is also being reported to such field crops as are growing at the present time. Observation of cutworms in gardens and fields indicates that their damage in many sections may be expected to continue up to the middle of April or perhaps a little beyond or later in our northern sections."

"In some counties such corn as has been planted is being destroyed by the worms and it is probable that damage may be repeated where corn is replanted. This may result not only in the reduction of corn acreage but may increase the cotton acreage by that much. The present damage to gardens during the likelihood of its continuance during the next month is also a matter of seriousness when it comes to the live-at-home program. Considered from every aspect, the present cutworm infestation, which is much more severe than has been experienced in a number of years, is of especial importance in Texas this season."

The formula for the poison bran mash, urged for use in combatting the cut worm, is given by R. R. Reppert, entomologist, Extension Service, as follows.

Paris green or white arsenic 1 lb., coarse wheat bran 20 lbs., lemons finely ground in a meat chopper (and juice included) 6 fruits, Cane or sorghum molasses 2 quarts, Water sufficient to make a moist mash that will not be sloppy.

"The formula should not be varied in the slightest detail," said

Mr. Reppert. "The poison and bran should be mixed together thoroughly and the liquid materials, including the finely chopped lemons, are mixed together and added to the bran, thoroughly mixing with later additions of water if found necessary. The finished mash should be thoroughly wet, yet of such consistency that it will readily fall apart. A good test is to squeeze the material in the hand when of the proper consistency, the water will merely ooze between the fingers without dripping from the hand."

"Since cutworms feed at night and prefer the moist mash material is best applied late in the afternoon, placing about one-half teaspoonful at the base of each plant or hill, or distributing it in a thin line along rows where the plants are drilled. It will be very important to keep poultry from the garden where this has been applied."
